Course Description

This course is designed to help develop your ability to reason with quantitative information, develop your critical thinking and reasoning skills, and prepare you for mathematics you encounter in the real world.

We will cover the following chapters of the e-textbook:

- Chapter 3 – Numbers in the Real World
- Chapter 4 – Managing Money
- Chapter 8 – Exponential Astonishment
- Chapter 9 – Modeling Our World

Textbook

An electronic copy of the textbook Using and Understanding Mathematics, 7th edition, by Bennett and Briggs, is included with the homework platform MyLab Math.

A scientific calculator is required.

Grading

Your final grade will be based on the following:

Exams 40%	Final 20%	Homework 30%	Group Work 10%
--------------	--------------	-----------------	-------------------

To pass the course and advance to future coursework, you must score at least a C, that is, 73% or better in the coursework.

93 – 100 A	90 – 92 A–	88 – 89 B+	83 – 87 B	80 – 82 B–	78 – 79 C+	73 – 77 C	70 – 72 C–	Below 70 D or F
---------------	---------------	---------------	--------------	---------------	---------------	--------------	---------------	--------------------

Class Attendance

Attendance will not be taken but there will be group work during class time worth 10% of your final grade that can not be made up.

Homework

Homework will be assigned and completed on our Canvas page and accounts for 30% of your final grade. A point is deducted for each day a homework assignment is late and homework problems may be attempted as many times as needed.

Exams

There are four exams worth 10% each for a total of 40% of your final course grade. If you miss an exam, you may take the exam with a valid excuse and with prior permission. This must be done within a week of the missed exam.

The exams will cover the following chapters:

- Exam 1 – Chapter 3 (Numbers in the Real World)
- Exam 2 – Chapter 4 (Managing Money)
- Exam 3 – Chapter 8 (Exponential Astonishment)
- Exam 4 – Chapter 9 (Modeling Our World)

The final exam is comprehensive and counts for 20% of your grade. Your final exam grade may also replace the lowest of the four exams.

COVID-19 and Masking

In accordance with Proclamation 21.14.1, CWU has chosen to make vaccinations a priority this academic year. We believe a fully vaccinated community is the best way to protect our individual and collective health and safety. Proof of full vaccination against COVID-19 is required for all employees and students. Medical and/or religious accommodation requests will be considered.

Academic Honesty and Inclusiveness

Consult university policies CWUP 5-90-040(22), CWUR 2-90-040(22), and WAC 106-125-020 for student conduct, cheating, plagiarism, and other academic expectations. CWU's policies and recommendations for academic misconduct will be followed, leading to disciplinary action up to and including failing the course.

CWU expects every member of the university community to contribute to an inclusive and respectful classroom culture.

Students with Disabilities

Central Washington University is committed to creating a learning environment that meets the needs of its diverse student body. If you anticipate or experience any barriers to learning, discuss your concerns with your instructor. Students with disabilities should contact Disability Services to discuss a range of options to removing barriers, including accommodations. Student Disability Services is located in Hogue 126. Call (509) 963 – 2214 or email ds@cwu.edu for more information.

Faith/Tradition Observances Policy

In compliance with RCW 28B.137.010, Central Washington University makes every effort to deal reasonably and fairly with students who, because of religious obligations, have conflicts with scheduled exams, assignments or required attendance. Students must present written notice to their instructor within the first two weeks of class listing the specific dates on which accommodations are required. Contact the Dean of Student Success at (509) 963 – 1515 for further information or questions.
